The Carson Daily Appeal

CARSON CITY: Wednesday, April 16, 1873.

Joe Rosesstock is now receiving an immense stock of Spring and Summer goods; hats and caps of the latest designs; shirts and collars of the most approved models and patterns; elegant matched suits; very handsome Spring overcoats; and every imaginable sort of rigging, from the patriarchal blanket to the first open the goods; hats and caps of the letist derigging, from the patriarchal blanket to the skrimptions sleevebutton and the neat the skrimptions sleevebutton and the next and nippy screw-anger shirt stud. They who are shedding the anti-Boreal flamed and are about assuming the less cumbersome knitted undergarment; they whose Winter coverings, respectable grown from long and faithful use, would supplant the vestments of whitened seam and napless sleeve with the gayer fabric of the vernal season; and, all and singular, those who would bedeck the outer man with the more decorous habiliments of an advanced fashion and a later cut, should not fail to visit the Rosenstockian should not fail to visit the Rosenstockian

MR. JACOB TOBBINES is just receiving his Spring stock of groceries, house furnishing goods, &c. We discovered this fact after taking a casual peep into his door while passing and having our attention attracted to some highly ornamented articles of pottery which, upon examination we discovered to be an elaborate pattern of flower pots. Everything estable and drinkable and many things wearable and indispensable are being wheeled into Jakey's capacious store.

Wg noticed yesterday while looking afar from the northern porch of the passenger station, that the roof-timbers for the Pearson eating and lodging house were climbing into place and the said hostelry was rapidly assuming the full proportions of an inn. Considering the proportions of an infi. Considering the divergent sources from whence were brought the various materials which constitute that structure, we suggest as its future name, The Washoe Conglomerate.

A TEMPERANCE LECTURE will take place to-night at the Methodist church. Mr. C. S. Haswell, the lecturer, is reputed one of the most eloquent and gifted speakers on the Pacific coast; and we not only hope that he may have a full and appreciative audience, but that his teachings may produce the desired results. There is many a confirmed stiff hereaway that ought to go and be conserved as other un and die. verted, sober up and die.

MINT MATTERS. — There were three hundred and fifty pounds of mixed gold A Causin and silver bullion received yesterday at the Mint; and last night there were fit-teen bars of Crown Point bullion shipped from thence to the parent bank of the London and San Francisco Bank-ing Institution, through Wells, Fargo & Co. Yesterlay $18,000 in double eagles
